REDI Lab is an authentic and hands-on learning experience in any discipline you choose. You get to enjoy the freedom to explore and learn at your own pace and to find new passions, explore new ideas, and execute a project.

In the REDI Lab, we build community around passions and interests in order to create value by sharing ideas.

Students will leave the two-week academy with:

- new skills and confidence
- unique and personalized letter of recommendation for post-high school needs
- professionally produced video of their final presentation
- access to a community and network of supporters to help in future endeavors

Tuition: $1,500

Schedules are flexible and students can join remotely if needed.

Attendance is free for those who qualify for financial aid.

All meals, supplies, and RTD transportation are included in the tuition.

Transportation: travel to and from the Coleman Center will be coordinated with each student, email REDI Lab Director, Tom Thorpe (tom.thorpe@coloradoacademy.org) with questions.
